To whom it may concern,

I am writing to commend Liudmila Neagu-Popova as a dedicated and professional instructor in our Fashion Design program. Liudmila has worked in the Continuing Education department at Algonquin College since 2008 until the present. I have had the pleasure of working with her since 2012, engaging her to teach a variety of sewing and clothing construction courses. We have also asked her to do additional tasks from inventory and repair in our sewing room to advising students and helping us shape the curriculum for the program.

Through this time, I have known Liudmila to be conscientious and hard-working. Although the Fashion Design program has now been suspended, this is certainly no reflection on the commitment and quality of teachers like Liudmila.

To enhance her professional teaching skills, she has completed the Teachers of Adults and Lifelong Learners certificate which is designed specifically for Algonquin faculty. Liudmila's passion for her students and for her subject matter comes through in everything she does. She has received much positive feedback from her students over the years. We certainly appreciate all she has contributed to the program and the students.

Please contact me if you have any additional questions about this devoted educator.

Sincerely,

Fiona Murray, M.Ed.
